

You Never Know..!

10 0 1

Chapter 1 by Shiv

It was 3am when he looked up from his bench at the clock on his locked cellphone screen... The last song had just finished and a it was the dull few seconds before the next one played.. He usually kept it on 'shuffle'...

The bamboo ashtray lay on one his right next to the wax carving tool tray which had way too many unfinished projects in wax pieces in the different blue and pink pastel wax... He had almost forgotten about the last joint he had paused from to work on something and it had died with a few puffs remaining... He reached for the lighter and lit the joint.. Tilting his head to the left while he lit it...
